

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 29

BY STATE AFFAIRS COMMITTEE

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

STATING FINDINGS OF THE LEGISLATURE AND RECOGNIZING THE MUSLIM BROTHERHOOD AND THE COUNCIL ON AMERICAN-ISLAMIC RELATIONS AS FOREIGN TERRORIST OR-GANIZATIONS THAT ARE OVERTLY HOSTILE TO THE PEOPLE AND INSTITUTIONS OF THE STATE OF IDAHO.

Be It Resolved by the Legislature of the State of Idaho:

WHEREAS, the Society of the Muslim Brothers, also known as Jama'at al-Ikhwan alMuslimin, (the Muslim Brotherhood) is a foreign and transnational Islamist organization; and

WHEREAS, Hassan al-Banna, who founded the Muslim Brotherhood almost 100 years ago, professed that "Jihad is an obligation from Allah on every Muslim and cannot be ignored nor evaded" and that jihad means "the fighting of the unbelievers, and involves all possible efforts that are necessary to dismantle the power of the enemies of Islam including beating them, plundering their wealth, destroying their places of worship and smashing their idols";
and

WHEREAS, even in the present day, Mohammed Badie, the Eighth Supreme Guide of the Muslim Brotherhood who is currently serving a life sentence for plotting an armed insurrection in Egypt, has stated that the organization's primary goal is to establish Islam's "mastership of the world" and a total reform of all domains of life by resurrecting an Islamic state or a caliphate-empowered state to forcibly impose Sharia law worldwide; and

WHEREAS, the Muslim Brotherhood provides support to localized branches in countries and territories throughout the world, including groups that conduct terrorism internationally; and

WHEREAS, specific branches of the Muslim Brotherhood, such as HASM and Liwa al Thawra, have been designated by the U.S. Department of State as specifically designated global terrorist entities; and

WHEREAS, activities of Muslim Brotherhood branches have similarly been limited or prohibited by the governments of Austria, Bahrain, Egypt, Jordan, Saudi Arabia, and the United Arab Emirates in light of the Muslim Brotherhood engaging in terrorism or attempting to destabilize those countries; and

WHEREAS, Hamas, which was formed in 1987 as the Palestinian branch of the Muslim Brotherhood and is designated by the United States government as a foreign terrorist organization, kidnapped and murdered American citizens in its surprise assault against Israel on October 7, 2023; and

WHEREAS, the Council on American-Islamic Relations (CAIR) is an Islamist organization that, according to the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), was founded as a "front group" for "Hamas and its support network" in the United States; and

WHEREAS, the Program on Extremism at George Washington University, America's leading academic research center on extremism, reports that CAIR is an example of conscious efforts by "the US-based Hamas network to regener-

1 ate itself" and continue acting "under new guises" in the United States based 2 on Hamas's "need to camouflage the identity of the new organization"; and

3 WHEREAS, Nihad Awad, the Executive Director of CAIR, has boasted that 4 American Muslims are "ready to move to the next phase," and that within the 5 next 15 years the Muslim community "will have 50,000, an army of these peo-6 ple" who "will design [Islam's] image, protect the truth and the news,...
7 many of these people will run for public office, and they will become lawmak-8 ers" to advance Sharia law in America; and

9 WHEREAS, CAIR was named an unindicted co-conspirator in one of the 10 largest successful prosecutions of terrorism financing in United States 11 history, where internal documents plainly identified CAIR as a subsidiary of 12 the Muslim Brotherhood and a federal court eventually found "ample evidence 13 to establish" that CAIR was associated "with Hamas," United States v. Holy 14 Land Found. for Relief & Dev.; and

15 WHEREAS, CAIR and its members have repeatedly employed, affiliated 16 with, and supported individuals promoting terrorism-related activities, 17 including:

18 (1) Ghassan Elashi, a founding board member of the Texas branch for CAIR 19 and Treasurer of the Holy Land Foundation for Relief and Development, who was 20 sentenced to a total of 65 years in prison for financing terrorism in 2009;

21 (2) Abdurahman Alamoudi, a speaker at a CAIR-sponsored anti-Israel
22 rally in Washington, D.C., in October 2000, who proudly proclaimed himself
23 to be a "supporter of Hamas" and "a supporter of Hezbollah" and who was later 24 convicted as a terrorist for funding Al Qaeda;

25 (3) Randall Todd Royer, a communications specialist and civil rights 26 coordinator for CAIR, who was sentenced to 20 years in prison on April 9, 27 2004, for conspiring to aid Al Qaeda and the Taliban;

28 (4) Bassem Khafagi, a community relations director for CAIR, who 29 pleaded guilty to federal bank and visa fraud in 2003 after funneling money
30 to terrorist causes and publishing material advocating suicide attacks 31 against the United States;

32 (5) Rabih Haddad, a CAIR fundraiser, who was arrested and deported for 33 his work as Executive Director of the Global Relief Foundation, which was 34 closed by the U.S. Department of the Treasury in October 2002 for financing 35 Al Qaeda;

36 (6) Muthanna al-Hanooti, a Director for CAIR in Michigan, who was con-37 victed and sentenced to prison in 2011 for violating United States sanctions 38 against Iraq by accepting "two million barrels of Iraqi oil" in exchange for 39 helping Saddam Hussein's government;

40 (7) Sami Al-Arian, a convicted terrorist and Palestinian Islamic Jihad 41 financier, whom CAIR publicly honored with its "Promoting Justice Award" in 42 2014 and whom it featured in a 2020 lecture in which he stressed his desire 43 "to promote" CAIR and "support [it] financially" as "the first defense" in 44 America; and

45 (8) Nihad Awad, CAIR's current Executive Director, who on November 24, 46 2023, publicly praised and supported Hamas's October 7, 2023, attack against 47 Israel, saying he "was happy to see" the assault which involved the kidnap-48 ping and murder of American citizens; and

1 WHEREAS, the FBI suspended formal contacts with CAIR in 2008 and the 2 Biden Administration removed CAIR's name from certain online documents in 3 2023 to make clear it was distancing itself from the organization.

4 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the members of the Second Regular Ses-5 sion of the Sixty-eighth Idaho Legislature, the House of Representatives and 6 the Senate concurring therein, that the Legislature will now acknowledge the 7 status of the Muslim Brotherhood and CAIR as identified transnational ter-8 rorist organizations when considering any future legislation, including re-9 garding purchasing or acquiring land in the State of Idaho.
